Anti-Malaria Medication options:

- According to the CDC - ALL of Haiti is a moderate risk for Malaria prone mosquitoes.
- The following are their recommendations for anti-malarial options. You can also read more on the CDC website listed here: http://www.cdc.gov/malaria/travelers/country_table/h.html
- All of the following increase sensitivity to sun – make sure to use sunscreen on a consistent basis

1. Chloroquine

Benefit: convenience (once per week), relatively inexpensive

Cons: intolerance is fairly common, need to take for 6 weeks, typically not covered by insurance

Note: Most common drug prescribed for Haiti if you do not request an alternative

2. Doxycycline

Benefits: often covered by insurance, treats acne, relatively inexpensive

Con: need to take daily for 36 days, significantly increases risk of sunburn

3. Malarone

Benefits: probably best tolerated, only need to take for 16 days for a 1 week trip

Cons: need to take daily, typically the most expensive

Please check with your Health Insurance to see which anti-malarials they will cover.

Along with the anti-malarial drugs we recommend:

- Bug Spray/Lotion – Any Variety – Higher Deet content is more effective.
- Permethrin Clothing Spray - <http://www.sawyer.com/tech-bugs1.html>

Spraying clothes with Permethrin

Concentrated permethrin solution (approx 37% vs. working concentration of 0.5%, it is 74X with the concentrate):

- http://www.amazon.com/gp/product/B005UUZ3OI?psc=1&redirect=true&ref=oh_aui_search_detailpage
- This costs about $25 for 32oz, which makes about 19 gallons of ready-to-use solution.
- Consider sharing the cost with your team members

HOW TO USE CONCENTRATE:

- You will need a gallon sized lawn sprayer or empty/clean gallon sized jug/spray bottle.
- Add 1.7 oz (3.5 tablespoons) concentrate per gallon.
- We recommend you fill the sprayer about one-fourth full with water, add the permethrin, fill to one gallon with water, and then screw on the sprayer attachment, give it a good shake to mix.

PERMETHRINE - READY MADE

- You can purchase the ready-made from Sawyer, but it costs 60X more than the concentrate.
- <https://sawyer.com/products/permethrin-premium-insect-repellent/>

HOW TO SPRAY CLOTHES

- Spread out clothes on a tarp, cardboard, or newspaper in a well-ventillated area.
- Wear disposable or rubber dish gloves since you will be handling clothes that have just been sprayed with permethrin.
- It is recommended to spray 6 oz per outfit, which would include socks, but not undergarments.
- Spray the outside of your footwear, as well as your hats / head covering.
- Spray each article of clothing until it is noticeably damp, then flip everything over and repeat.
- It goes very quick with a lawn sprayer.
- You can dry the treated clothes on a clothesline, drying rack, or on hangers.
- When the clothes are dry, the smell of the permethrin will essentially be gone.

The permethrin treatment should last through at least 6 washings or 6 weeks.
